

SIGNS OF AN OPIOID OVERDOSE

Unconscious and unresponsive

Very small pupils

Slow or Shallow Breathing

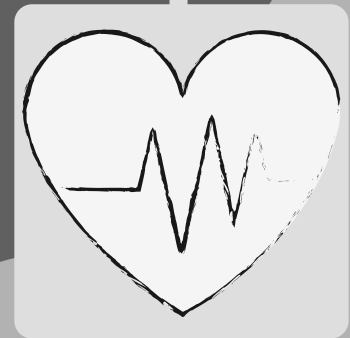

Vomiting

Pale, clammy Face

Slow, irregular or weak pulse

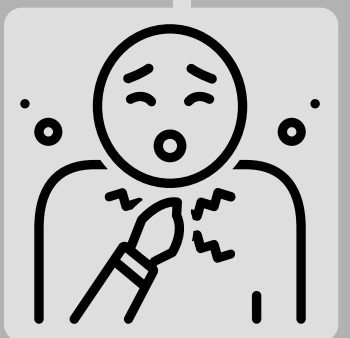

Body is limp

Fingernails and lips change color

Choking or snoring sounds

AN OVERDOSE IS NOT A DEATH SENTENCE

Recovery Position

If you notice someone overdosing :
Try to wake them up and keep them awake
Call 911
If available, administer Naloxone (Narcan)
Put them in the recovery position stay until help arrives

